

SPANISH RED WINE ANALYSIS

April 2022

Made by Julia Kuznetsova

ABOUT DATA

- Scope of analysis: 2017 Spanish red wines, all prices, all ratings
- Data source: Vivino.com
- User IP: Netherlands
- Period: April 2022

PRICE/RATING CORRELATION

PRICE/RATING CORRELATION

- There is strong positive correlation ($r = 0.76$) between price and rating
- Top-100 wines with the highest prices have a median rating of 4.6
- Top-100 wines with the lowest prices have a median rating of 3.9
- Top-100 wines with the highest ratings have a median price of € 440.14
- Top-100 wines with the lowest ratings have a median price of € 14.30

PRICE/YEAR CORRELATION

- The overall price/year correlation is weak (-0.49)
- Top-100 oldest wines have a median price of € 197.44
- Top-100 youngest wines have a median price of € 15.10
- Top-100 wines with the highest prices are older: 2007 is the median year
- Top-100 wines with the lowest prices are younger: 2018 is the median year

BEST-VALUE WINES: CRITERIA

- Price: less than median* (under € 30)
- Rating: more than median* (4.1)
- Number of ratings*: more than median* (227)
- Body: 4–5
- Alcohol: 14.5 or less

* Based on the median values of all Spanish red wines (2017 entries)

ANNEXES

- List of best-value wines: best_value_wines.html

CONTACTS

- GITHUB: github.com/kooznitsa
- EMAIL: jukuznetwork@gmail.com