SPANISH RED WINE ANALYSIS

April 2022

Made by Julia Kuznetsova
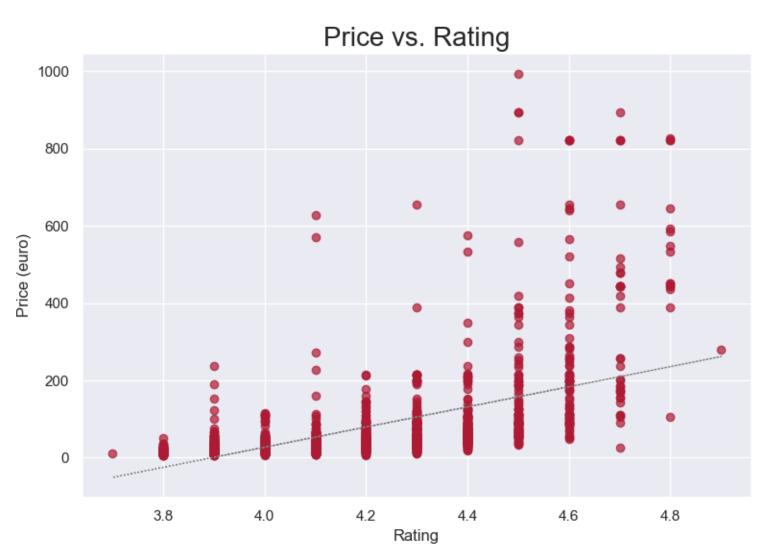

ABOUT DATA

- Scope of analysis: 2017 Spanish red wines, all prices, all ratings

- Data source: Vivino.com

- User IP: Netherlands

- Period: April 2022

PRICE/RATING CORRELATION

Price vs. Rating

PRICE/RATING CORRELATION

▪ There is weak positive correlation (r = 0.46) between price and rating. Other parameters show an even weaker correlation

▪ Top-100 wines with the highest prices have a median rating of 4.6

▪ Top-100 wines with the lowest prices have a median rating of 3.9

▪ Top-100 wines with the highest ratings have a median price of € 440.14

▪ Top-100 wines with the lowest ratings have a median price of € 14.30

PRICE/YEAR CORRELATION

- The overall price/year correlation is weak (−0.3)

- Top-100 oldest wines have a median price of € 197.44

- Top-100 youngest wines have a median price of € 15.10

- Top-100 wines with the highest prices are older: 2007 is the median year

- Top-100 wines with the lowest prices are younger: 2018 is the median year

BEST-VALUE WINES: CRITERIA

- Price: less than median* (under € 30)

- Rating: more than median* (4.1)

- Number of ratings*: more than median* (227)

- Body: 4–5

- Alcohol: 14.5 or less

* Based on the median values of all Spanish red wines (2017 entries)

ANNEXES

- List of best-value wines: best_value_wines.html

CONTACTS

- GITHUB: github.com/kooznitsa
- EMAIL: jukuznetswork@gmail.com